REQUEST FOR INFORMATION
(SCM RFI NO. IP0125-0387-1)

THREAT INTELLIGENCE PLATFORM (TIP)

MERALCO intends to transition its threat intelligence processes to a more automated and integrated setup by utilizing a combination of on-premises, cloud, or hybrid infrastructure. To this end, MERALCO invites interested vendors to provide general information regarding the potential requirement for Threat Intelligence Platform (TIP) solutions in the market that meet the required purpose of strengthening and streamlining threat intelligence processes across the organization, as well as assess the accessibility of vendors in case of a possible procurement.

DETAILS
Threat Intelligence Platform (TIP) will provide a comprehensive framework to aggregate threat data, facilitate incident response, and automate Indicators of Compromise (IoC) blocking and dissemination via email. The functionalities of the TIP platform should align with MERALCO's strategic objectives, focusing on improving security posture through advanced analytics and integrating with existing security tools.
The solution should have the following basic functionalities:
