SEC REFORMS TO STRENGTHEN AN ETHICAL AND COMPETITIVE BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

CGO and Legal attend an Integrity Initiative Forum

Corporate Governance Office and Legal personnel attended a forum with the theme: "SEC Reforms to Strengthen an Ethical and Competitive Business Environment" on March 5, 2013 at the Hotel Inter-Continental, Makati City. The speaker during the forum was SEC Chairperson Teresita J. Herbosa, who discussed SEC's recent efforts to strengthen the corporate and capital market infrastructure of the Philippines leading to better governance and competitiveness.

The forum is the eleventh in a series of events and workshops organized by Integrity Initiative to promote ethics, integrity, compliance, and good governance, and to continuously educate the private sector in these areas. The Integrity Initiative is a private sector-led campaign organized by the Makati Business Club (MBC) and the European Chamber of Commerce of the Philippines (ECCP).

CGO and Legal personnel who attended are: Ms. Lilian P. Umipig (CG Officer), Mr. Harold Enriquez and Ms. Lair Ambrocio (CGO Staff), Ms. Rose Kinkito, Ms. Namie Manzano and Mr. Paolo Urian.
