

November 5, 2014

Meralco is 2014 Asia's Icon on Corporate Governance

Meralco was again awarded for the second straight year as Asia's Icon on Corporate Governance in the recently concluded 10th Corporate Governance Asia Recognition Awards on October 24 at the Renaissance Harbour View Hotel in Hong Kong.

The Icon Award is the top-notch recognition given to ASEAN-based publicly listed companies for consistently elevating their corporate governance practices and being at the forefront of the corporate governance campaign in the region.

Credited for their adoption of robust approaches to corporate governance principles and practices while enhancing stakeholder and investor value, Meralco Chairman Manuel V. Pangilinan and President & CEO Oscar S. Reyes were distinguished as Corporate Asian Directors of the Year. Mr. Pangilinan received the award as Managing Director and CEO of First Pacific Co., Ltd while Mr. Reyes received it as Director, President & CEO of Meralco.

Atty. Jocelyn C. Villar-Altamira, Head of Corporate Governance and Compliance, Corporate Governance (CG) Officer Ms. Lilian P. Umipig and CG Analyst Ms. Lair Ambrocio attended the awarding ceremony and received the award on behalf of the Company.

Receiving the award on behalf of Meralco are Atty. Jocelyn C. Villar-Altamira, Head of Corporate Governance and Compliance (leftmost), Corporate Governance (CG) Officer Lilian P. Umipig (second from left) and CG Analyst Lair Ambrocio (rightmost).
With them is Corporate Governance Asia's Publisher and Managing Director Aldrin Monsod (second from right)