

July 03, 2012

Meralco releases Code of Right Employee Conduct

Meralco released on June 29, 2012 the amended version of the Company Code on Employee Discipline, now entitled "Code of Right Employee Conduct (COREC)," as a guide to proper employee behavior in line with the current regulatory environment. It will be in effect starting August 1, 2012.

COREC was reviewed and approved by the Management Committee. As Meralco pursues its vision of becoming a world-class company and the power service provider of choice, COREC also embodies its corporate values of Customer Service, Performance, Accountability and Empowerment, Integrity and Transparency, Teamwork and Collegiality, Malasakit, and Makabayan.