

April 17, 2012

Meralco receives Asian Excellence Recognition Awards

Meralco received international recognition for its investor communications, corporate social responsibility (CSR) and financial performance at the 2nd Asian Excellence Recognition Awards 2012. The Company's awards are Best Investor Relations Company and Best CSR. Moreover, Meralco First Vice President, Treasurer and Head of Investment Management, Mr. Rafael L. Andrada was recognized as Asia's Best CFO, specifically in the field of Investor Relations.

The awards were based on both the scores and interviews from data submitted by CG Asia readers (investors, analyst, fund managers, practitioners, directors, etc.). Mr. Andrada received the award on behalf of Meralco in an awards dinner held March 30, 2012 in Hong Kong, hosted by Corporate Governance (CG) Asia.

CG Asia is a publication that aims to raise corporate governance standards in Asia. It caters to the most important companies in Asia and is a source of insightful editorial content regarding developments, legislation, case studies, and other matters relevant to corporate governance in Asia Pacific.

Managing Director and Publisher of Corporate Governance Asia, Mr. Aldrin Monsod (center) with Meralco First Vice President, Treasurer and Head of Investment Management, Mr. Rafael L. Andrada (right) and Meralco Chief Corporate Social Responsibility Officer, Mr. Jeffrey O. Tarayao at the 2nd Asian Excellence Recognition Awards 2012.