Meralco recognized at FinanceAsia poll

Meralco is in the Top 4 Philippine corporations Most Committed to a Strong Dividend Policy, a category in the Annual Best Managed Companies poll of regional publication FinanceAsia. The Award is a recognition by investors of how the company upholds its shareholders' rights through payouts of above-average industry trends.

The annual poll involves various categories and covers companies situated in China, Hongkong, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan and Thailand.

Company First Vice President and Treasurer, Mr. Rafael L. Andrada, Vice President and Corporate Governance Deputy head, Mr. Gerardo F. de la Paz, Vice President and Head of Organization Transformation and Management Services, Ms. Angelita S. Atanacio, and External Communications head, Mr. Joe R. Zaldarriaga received the award on behalf of Meralco on Wednesday, June 19, 2013 at the Makati Shangri-la.

FinanceAsia is a leading regional publication reporting on Asia's financial and capital markets through a daily website and a monthly magazine. It is part of the Haymarket Group, the largest privately owned publishing company in the UK, created in part by Lord Heseltine, the former UK deputy prime minister.
