BRINGING GOD BACK TO THE BOARD ROOM

Meralco and other PLCs attend a Breakfast Roundtable organized by ICD

Corporate Governance Office (CGO) personnel of different publicly-listed companies (PLCs) attended a breakfast roundtable with the theme: “Bringing God back to the Board Room” on April 25, 2013 at the Manila Golf and Country Club, Forbes Park in Makati City. The speaker is His Eminence Luis Antonio Cardinal Tagle, who discussed the importance of corporate governance founded on biblical principles and standards.

The Institute of Corporate Directors (ICD), which organized the event, is an organization of corporate directors and reputational agents spearheading corporate governance efforts in the Philippines. ICD leads corporate governance orientations, governance scorecard assessments and working sessions, to get directors and management engaged in corporate work, motivated by good governance principles and practices.

Meralco’s Senior Vice President and Head of Human Resources Mr. Ramon B. Segismundo, First Vice President and Head of Corporate Audits Ms. Helen T. de Guzman, Vice President and Deputy Head of CGO Mr. Gerardo F. dela Paz and Corporate Governance Officer Ms. Lilian P. Umipig were in attendance to the breakfast roundtable.
