MERALCO spearheads Governance, Ethics & Compliance (GEC) Academy

MERALCO served as host for the Governance, Ethics & Compliance (GEC) Academy: Concept & Education Module Development Workshop conducted by the Good Governance Advocates & Practitioners of the Philippines (GGAPP). The workshop was held on May 18, 2018 at the Pasig Room, the Lighthouse, MERALCO Compound, Pasig City, Philippines.

The whole-day activity was designed to "train-the-trainers" and establish standard education modules for GGAPP's upcoming GEC Academy. The workshop was facilitated by GGAPP's Education Committee, led by the Chairman of the Board, Atty. Vincent Edward R. Festin and Vice Chairman of the Education Committee, Mr. Alvin Dave M. Pusing.

Immediately following the workshop was GGAPP's regular monthly meeting. Atty. Jocelyn C. Villar-Altamira, head of Meralco's Corporate Governance and Compliance Office and GGAPP's past President and Trustee, discussed Liabilities of the Board during the Knowledge Sharing Session of the meeting.
