

December 20, 2013

MVP Group Directors and Senior Management attend Corporate Governance Enhancement Sessions

Directors of the MVP Group of Companies attended a Corporate Governance Enhancement Session on December 2, 2013 at the Makati Shangri-La. Mr. Winthrop M. Swenson, managing partner of Compliance Systems and Legal Group (CSLG), a law firm that specializes in global approaches to corporate ethics and compliance, was the resource person for the enhancement session.

Mr. Swenson facilitated an interactive exchange of thoughts on the subject of Board Responsibility in light of ethics and governance failures in the past. The scenarios discussed are for useful application by the Directors as they steer the companies towards the strategic objectives of the MVP Group.

The Corporate Governance Enhancement Session for MVP Group Senior Management was held on November 26, 2013 at the Meralco Theater. The session speaker was Ms. Gretchen Winter, the Executive Director of Center for Professional Responsibility in Business and Society, a Center that advocates the value of conducting business professionally to serve and protect public interest. Ms. Winter imparted to the Senior Managers the practical application of core values and company policies in rendering management decisions when facing ethical dilemmas.

Directors and Senior Managers who participated in the executive talk represented Metro Pacific Investments Corp. (MPIC), PLDT, PLDT Global, ePLDT, SMART, SPI GLOBAL, DIGITEL, Mediaquest, MERALCO and MERALCO Subsidiaries.

Through initiatives such as these annual CG enhancement sessions, the MVP Group manifests its commitment to corporate responsibility in its business decisions and practices, consistent with the Group's core principles and values.